Important:

Men in Black has performed all of these songs at least once over the past 16 years, but we don't know them all by heart. It is important to let the band know in advance of the songs you really want to hear. Keep in mind, the band wants to appeal to everyone at the wedding and play songs that will keep the dance floor full all night long. We hope that you will trust us in choosing songs that have proven to be "dance floor fillers" and "crowd pleasers" over the years. We try to find a good balance of old and new and try to please all of the age groups throughout the night.
